SKETCH COMEDY FOR THE REST OF AMERICA

THE LEFT GETS RICH WHILE IT BRAINWASHES AMERICA

COMEDY IS A $40 BILLION INDUSTRY...

And political satire is growing fast within this lucrative industry. The comedic scales tilt heavily to one side, however, thanks to the left's dominance of pop culture.

Mainstream media, Hollywood, and Big Tech have conspired to suppress and censor opposing viewpoints, boldly advancing its woke crusade.

BUT WHEN THE RIGHT PLAYS, IT WINS...

- FOX NEWS AVERAGES 2.4 MILLION VIEWERS IN PRIMETIME

- DAILY WIRE HAS 2.62 MILLION SUBSCRIBERS

- GUTFELD AVERAGES 1.9 MILLION VIEWERS

Saturday Night Live has gone 45 years without serious competition. Over the last decade, it has doubled down on bashing the right with more left-leaning political sketches.

When it comes to comedy and politics, the entertainment industry ignores a major market. To paraphrase Michael Jordan, Republicans Laugh Too.

We're here to entertain a market that is STARVING for content.

TIME TO FIGHT BACK...

Andrew Breitbart famously said Politics is downstream from pop culture. For generations the left has quietly waged a culture war while the rest of America idly stood by. The country's apathy to the slow cultural takeover has emboldened the left. Crazy becomes mainstream and there's no limit to the absurdity being shoved down America's throats.

ENOUGH IS ENOUGH!

Welcome to That Show Tonight, live sketch comedy designed to expose the hypocrisy and insanity of WOKE cancel culture. For decades political satire has been one sided. And now, the left is doubling down on lies, shielding them with censorship and cancel culture.

LAUGHTER LEADS THE WAY

Studies show that humor promotes the spread and retention of news. Journal of Communications

Perhaps that explains why late night shows like Steven Colbert, Jimmy Fallon, Jimmy Kimmel, and certainly Saturday Night Live have become more political. The left uses humor to advance its woke ideology.

But humor falls flat when it promotes lies and falsehoods. How else do you explain how, in just months, The Greg Gutfeld Show beat Colbert, Kimmel, and Fallon in late-night ratings?

It's time to take on Saturday Night Live. The left provides plenty of material for our expert team of writers to turn into comedic gold. While SNL worries more about woke approval and less about real comedy, That Show Tonight will fill the growing vacuum with entertaining and hilarious sketch comedy.

SO MANY WAYS TO LAUGH!

But it's not just sketch comedy. Our shows feature much more!

- Leading, high profile guest hosts
- Musical acts
- Digital shorts
- Animated shorts

Jim Breuer, Nick Searcy, Terrence K Williams are among some of the top entertainers involved in our project! There are many many more waiting in the wings.

A CANCEL-PROOF MODEL

We have partnered with Austin based Sovereign Data Solutions to build our own website, hosted on a completely independent server. SDS is funded by a conservative network of finance and tech leaders who developed a safe haven where common-sense and patriotic themes flow freely

Our shows will livestream unimpeded by the powerful tech monopolies. We do not rely on corporate sponsors whose fear of cancel culture prevents support for “politically incorrect” content.

IMPRESSIVE ROI's FOR INVESTORS

Our subscription model will be driven by a world-class marketing firm providing the potential for impressive returns for investors.

When our entertaining team of comedic writers connect humor with this underserved, immense market, the potential ROI for those who invest in taking our country back is off the charts!
